

ARTS ALIVE

Join us for Arts Alive 2023!

Saturday, April 8
10 am – 4 pm
Hillsdale Campus

Arts Alive is a celebration of our students' talents across all art disciplines. Students in grades 1-12 have been invited to share their pieces, performances, and passions during the all-day event on the Hillsdale campus. Live music and dancing, arts and crafts booths, as well as an interactive scavenger hunt ensures fun for all ages.

All friends and family of Seven Hills students – Early Learning through Upper School - are invited to join the Arts Alive celebration. Admission is free, with food trucks and drinks available at cost.

FAQ

Where is Arts Alive being held?

Arts Alive will be held on the Hillsdale campus, with performances occurring in the Schiff Center and on two outdoor stages. Visual arts will be displayed throughout Schiff and the Donovan Arts Center. Interactive arts and crafts booths and a scavenger hunt will be scattered across the campus to encourage kids to roam and explore!

What if it rains?

The event will occur rain or shine, with outdoor events moving inside.

What if my kids play sports?

All Seven Hills sports and other activities are off so that kids can participate and enjoy the day.

When will the full schedule be released?

The schedule of performances will be made available by Monday, March 6th. Please review your weekly blast for updates.

Will food be available?

We are excited to provide a variety of food options for purchase via food trucks vendors throughout the day. Food trucks include Mamma Bear Mac, Big Dogs Pizza, and Rollin Bowls. Gluten Free, Vegetarian and Vegan options will be available. Travelling Tom will be serving hot cocoa and a variety of coffee. Desserts from Morsels Bakery can be found in the Donovan Art Center for event attendees.
